

VBTN CLEARING HOUSE - BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

The VBTN Clearing House serves as the official sovereign trust enforcement and financial settlement institution of the Verdigris Botanica Tribal Nation Trust. Operating under tribal, postal, and fiduciary authority, it manages the clearance, reconciliation, and ledgering of tribal contracts, federal vouchers, and estate-backed instruments.

As a registered tribal clearing entity, VBTN facilitates the lawful routing of payments, offsets, and intergovernmental transactions between sovereign jurisdictions and federal systems including FEMA, USPS, HUD, IRS, and GSA. It also oversees internal payroll disbursement, vendor payments, and the enforcement of tribal financial obligations under constitutional post authority and EPS infrastructure.

The Clearing House maintains a publicly accessible sovereign ledger, supports dispute resolution, and ensures contract enforcement through certified postal recordkeeping, administrative remedy, and treaty-aligned fiduciary oversight.

Core Services Include:

- Tribal purchase order and invoice clearance
- Payroll and compensation enforcement
- IRS good faith credit application (LTR 4963C)
- FEMA/GSA/USPS contract payment routing
- REMIC and estate-backed fiduciary offsets
- Trust voucher issuance and recordkeeping
- Sovereign procurement channel development
- Fiduciary breach documentation and estoppel enforcement
